Key

 Vegetarian  Vegan  Gluten Free

Due to the nature of airline catering with its diversity of different products, allergen cross-contamination may occur during production. Therefore all products may contain traces of peanuts, nuts and their derivatives.

Onboard Catering Service

We're unable to change or remove products that are available to buy onboard due to food allergies (for example, egg allergy). Pre-order meals and sandwiches will be served as normal. We also can't guarantee that other customers won't bring their own products onboard.
